Says it's Trump spewing the hate

Editor:

Re: "Hillary the hateful" (Sept. 15 Chronicle). Crooked Hillary, yin' Ted, little Marco, ugly Carly, murderers and rapists, etc., etc., ad nauseam.

Trump has set a tone that resonates with some people who share his divisive, derogatory, accusatory, doomsday views presenting himself as their savior.

Letters to The Chronicle

I don't agree with the way Clinton said it, but I do agree that some of Trump's followers share his deplorable views and feel emboldened to express them because he encourages them and will pay their legal fees if they punch someone.

Trump wants their vote. "Hillary the hateful," Mark? Kind of ironic.

Trump supporters' views are deplorable!

Dear Mr. Frost,

If I understand your front page editorial last week, the headline might better have read "Campaign Descends into Insults."

You obviously find fault with both major candidates for President. But you seem intensely outraged at Hillary for her disrespect of "deplorables."

"Deplore" means "find unacceptable, take a dim view of." It does not mean "hate" and it is
