Dream trip for Lanoir boys; skate with star Jack Hughes

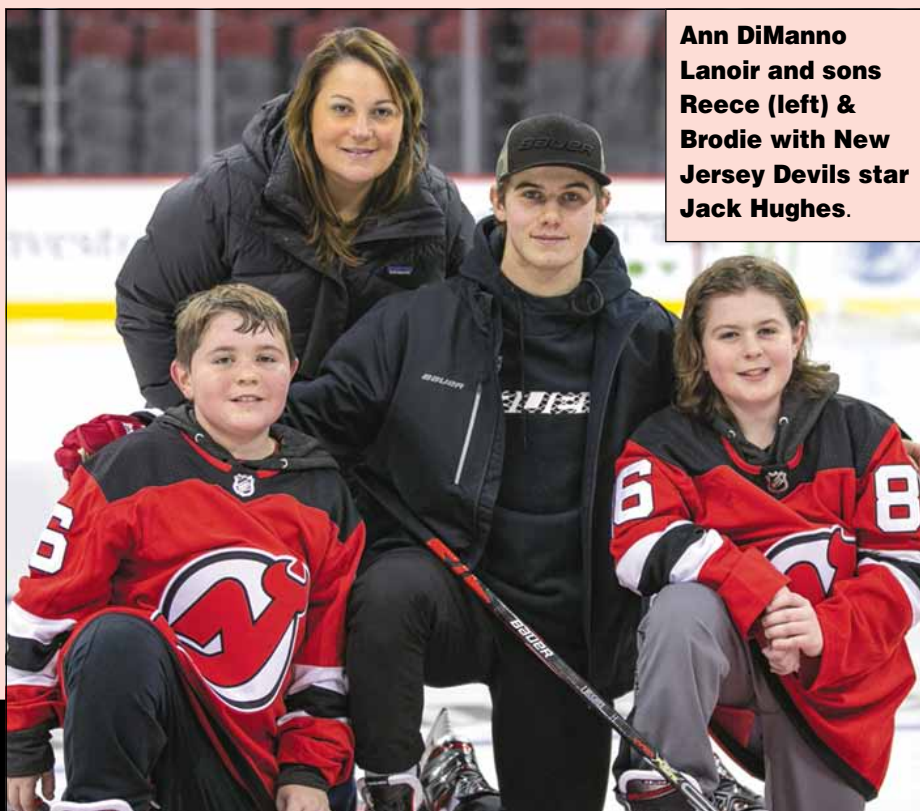

By Gordon Woodworth
Chronicle News Editor

It's been a challenging year for Brodie and Reece Lanoir, as well as for their mom Ann, after their dad Adam Lanoir died suddenly in October 2018 at the age of 42.

Hockey steps up after death of their dad Adam

Adam, a hockey player from the age of three, played on two state championship teams for Glens Falls High School, and was a coach and good-will ambassador for the Adirondack Youth Hockey Association, as well as working as a lineman for National Grid.

Adam's death was crushing to the local hockey community. Hundreds of mourners packed St. Mary's Church for his funeral. A GoFundMe page raised thousands of dollars to help with expenses for Ann, server extraordinaire at Poopie's restaurant, owned by her parents Jerry and Brenda DiManno.

"We have had a lot of friends helping us out," Ann said. "Our hockey family is so great. Hockey families are the best families. I couldn't do it without them."

Brodie and Reece are crazy for hockey as their dad was, which set the stage for a magical two-day road trip to New Jersey, where they skated with Devils hockey star Jack Hughes.

"To see Reece and Brodie skating and playing stick and puck with Jack Hughes, smiling ear to ear, was so awesome," said Ann.

She took Brodie and Reece out of school a little early on Tuesday, Dec. 3, telling them they were going to see the Rockettes

2020 vision

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

Okay, I head into the new year with so many, many questions.

1. Assuming Joe Biden will be the Democratic nominee, will his runningmate be Amy Klobuchar? If not her, Kamala Harris?

2. Are the Buffalo Bills on their way to being serious contenders?

3. Will Donald Trump win re-election?

4. Will the New York Yankees, after failing to win a championship for an entire decade, take the World Series because they got Cole in their stocking?

5. Will JG3 — Joseph Girard III — make the All-Rookie Team of the Atlantic Coast Conference?

6. Will Doug Beaty persuade so many New Jersey residents to move to Warren County that they'll get him elected state senator?

7. Will bumbling Boeing drop the "e" and become Boing!?

8. Will Paul McCartney play Hudson Falls's Strand?

Elizabeth Miller starts work at 15-25 Park: 5 apartments, offices, 'different type tavern'

Chronicle Managing Editor Cathy DeDe writes: Developer Elizabeth Miller told The Chronicle she is beginning renovation of the three-story, 15,000-square foot building that she purchased from the Lebowitz family earlier this year at 15-25 Park Street across the street from her Park Theater and Doc's Restaurant.

She said she expects to create five apartments on the top floor, two or three office spaces on the second floor and retail on the first floor.

As to existing first floor tenants Charlie's Vacuum and Park Street Tavern — familiarly known by its stark yellow and black "Bar Food" sign — Mrs. Miller said, "I don't know, it's a question if the current tenants will remain."

She said the bar "will probably transition out. It will probably transition into a different type of tavern."

Wall Street Journal anti-impeachment editorial 'ignorant'

To the Editor,

The Wall Street Journal editorial board asserts, "Mr. Trump didn't withhold military aid to Ukraine..." How do they know? Did the editorial board talk to Mulvaney, Pompeo and Bolton? Their conclusion is without knowledge of the facts, and thus their opinion is ignorant.

But, they say, "even if he had he would have merely been
