An American flag mural is planned on the sloping rear roof of this Maple Street building.

Unkauf gets GF Planning Board OK for 4 murals in his ambitious Muralgarten

By Zander Frost
Chronicle Staff Writer

The Glens Falls Planning Board approved four murals Tuesday night for Shirt Factory owner Eric Unkauf's "Muralgarten" project — and they seemed supportive of the overall project.

Artists will be Hannah Williams, of Glens Falls, on the back of 182 Maple. Sarah Calzada, of Bolton, on the front of 188 Maple. Jedidiah Murphy on the face of Community Action. Eric Unkauf and team for the flag rooftop at 182 Maple.

Mr. Unkauf's Muralgarten project also went in front of the Planning Board for a preliminary sketch plan review.

He presented plans on a 3-4 year timeframe and a "10 year build concept."

"This is not something that's going to happen overnight," he said.

The Planning Board seemed receptive, while pointing out some hurdles they said Mr. Unkauf would need to address.

Member Art Belden expressed concern about the 10-year timetable.

Mr. Unkauf called 10 years a "worst case scenario." He said the project will be financed with his own money plus donations. If "we don't get any big foundation grants, and we scrape together, $30, $40, $50,000 a year, and it takes 10 years."

Mr. Unkauf said the Muralgarten non-profit needs "to put two good solid years of progress in financials. Then we can go realistically apply — it doesn't mean we're going to get it — but we can apply to the National Endowment for the Arts, we can apply to Empire State Development."

Another issue raised stems from the shipping containers Mr. Unkauf hopes to use as art installations. Structures over 100 square feet must be permitted as accessory structures in Glens Falls.

Mr. Unkauf asked if permits would be needed if they are truck trailers on wheels. Planning Board Chair Ethan Hall said no, those would be vehicles.

Overall, the Planning Board showed enthusiasm for the project and was com-

Mural planned for front of the Community Action Agency building.

"I think it's great," member Brigit Culligan said, adding, "Any public art, I think it's really worthwhile."

LG Village adds upper-story condo zoning, biz district only

By Cathy DeDe

Chronicle Managing Editor

The Village of Lake George last month added a new zoning category that specifically allows upper story condominiums in a limited section of the downtown business district.

"We never had them in the use table before," Mayor Ray Perry tells The Chronicle. He said it eliminates the need for a special variance.

Creating the "overlay district" makes condos legal "but not in many zones," said Mayor Perry.

It's in the restricted zone — Canada Street and one block on either side of it — where short term rentals such as AirBnB or VRBO are now allowed.

But the overlay condo district is further restricted. It's bounded by Beach Road and McGillis Avenue to the south and the crosswalk at Amherst Street and Pine Point Lane to the north.

"I feel like a big chunk of properties in that zone could be utilized as condos, potential good use," Mayor Perry said. He cited especially The Boardwalk property and Duffy's restaurant.

The mayor said the zoning prevents motels and hotels like The Georgian

Allowed where short-term rentals are okay, but not where hotel/motels operate now

GF Rec softball sign-up

The Glens Falls Recreation Softball Program begins in mid-May. The Mens League starts Tuesday, May 16, and the COED League Wednesday May 24.

League fee, $200 per team, includes 10 regular season games and playoffs.

Games are 6 & 7 p.m. at Crandall Park. Winner of Mens League will participate in the Tri-County Tournament.

Info: Edward Corcoran, 518-491-1570.

Resort, Surfside and Marriott Courtyard from being converted to condos.

"From a business investment standpoint, it might make sense for a developer to tear down the motel, build condos, sell them for a good chunk of change and just walk away, but that is not supporting tourism.

"What we don't want is what happened, like with Capri Village" in the Town of Lake George, "which was torn down and converted, now all privately owned condos. The goal is mainly to keep hotel and motel rooms. Otherwise you run the risk of losing them.

Meanwhile, "we want to encourage development of second-story, third, fourth, even fifth and sixth where it's applicable," Mayor Perry said.

Second-floor condo units are currently planned, for example, in the former King Neptune's waterfront property that is slated for extensive renovation as a boutique hotel, and upstairs from Caffé Vero coffee shop at 253 Canada Street.

LG Townwide garage sale

Lake George Village holds its annual Community Garage Sale Saturday and Sunday, May 6-7, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Mom of the HF boy hurt by truck disputes police report

Lexi North, the mother of Ryan North, 11-year-old badly injured on April 22 when he was struck by a pick-up truck, strongly disputes the Hudson Falls Police report on the accident.

Police said the driver Roger Rock "attempted to stop and swerve to avoid the child, but ultimately crashed into a nearby telephone pole."

Ms. North said Ryan was on her property, in her driveway — not in the street. Another caller took issue with the depiction of when Mr. Rock swerved.

The Chronicle again contacted HFPD. Captain Brad Lyon said he could not comment, but that the investigation is still active. He said the police would like to speak with any potential eyewitness that has yet to be interviewed.

A Gofundme for Ryan and Lexi had raised $11,380 as of Tuesday.

An update posted Tuesday said, "Ryan had a rough day yesterday and was pretty sick most of the afternoon and evening."

"Today he had a cat scan to make sure that everything was ok, since he had such a rough day yesterday and they confirmed he was ok and no brain trauma or concussion just the laceration where he has the staples."

The post said Ryan was scheduled for another surgery Wednesday.

In Ward 3, Democrat Claudia Braymer is not seeking re-election. Newcomers Andrew Kopf and Nancy Turner will vie in a Democratic primary. Magen MacDavid has the Republican line in November.

Craft on 9, Park & Elm get outdoor seat nod

The Glens Falls Planning Board gave a positive recommendation for chef-owner Rob Murphy's Craft on 9 proposal that would add five tables and 20 outdoor seats to the South Street restaurant.

Mr. Murphy's pitch showed an open sidewalk space between 4'7" and 4'9" — just below Mayor Collins' mandated 5 feet for ADA compliance.

Mayor Collins had previously told The Chronicle he aimed to be flexible over outdoor seating to support businesses.

It goes next to the Common Council. Park & Elm owner Ben Miller was also approved to add 24 outdoor seats and 6 tables on the Park Street sidewalk, in front of the deli.

Mr. Miller's seating leaves more than 5' feet of sidewalk clearance at all points.

Spot Coffee was also on the agenda for outdoor seating, but did not attend the meeting and the matter was tabled.

Asked: Your favorite tree?

By Mark Frost
 Chronicle Editor

What is your favorite tree? is the question we posed last week to our digital subscribers. Answers were interesting as always. I'm happy that two people (see final replies) chose a tree that is my favorite, too.

Gina Mintzer of Lake Luzerne: The Willow Tree is my favorite as it bends, flows and goes with the times whatever comes its way, i.e. weather, insects, and more. While many see the Willow as a sad and weeping tree, I view it as a survivor and symbol of rebirth, hope.

Jeanne Mathewson of Glens Falls: My favorite tree is the magnolia because of its early and beautiful flowers. I've seen many in the Glens Falls area.

Richard Pine of Corinth: American Basswood, aka Linden, because it's shapely and the flowers are intoxicatingly fragrant, though not much to look at. (Worked in Manhattan in a building next to an allé of them, and the aroma was sucked into the ventilation system every May or June - natural aromatherapy). Also, possibly the best shade tree around.

Laurie Blanchard, Glens Falls: My favorite tree is the tree my family grew up with that happened to be the Rockefeller Christmas tree this past holiday season.

Carol Wilkerson of Ballston Spa: My little Christmas tree I planted in Plattsburgh, NY in the year 2000. Every time I go back I check it to be sure it has not been cut down as I planted it at the far end of my front yard to block the sight of traffic. It is still there and it is so big now. It looks perfect! I was so proud of that little twig when first planted. It will always hold a special place in my heart because I buried my beloved cat there as well.

The elm in front of Crandall Park, just before the Queensbury line, that still, miraculously, seems healthy, though a couple of branches were bare of leaves Tuesday. Chronicle photo/Mark Frost/5-2-23

Linda Wooddell of Glens Falls: I love white birch trees. My husband used to love red maples - which are also nice.

Cyndie Haviland of Moreau: My Rose of Sharon given to me by a friend from her yard. When I planted it I thought it was a medium size bush. It has grown really tall and not in a great spot for a tree! But it is beautiful. Lolol

David Abbott of Glens Falls: The big elm tree on upper Glen St. - everybody's favorite.

Paul Cordes, Queensbury: The Elm on the edge of Glen St. near the YMCA, Lone Elm.

Mark Frost: Propelled me to photograph it — again.

'Preparing for your demise'...

By Deborah K. Ricci

Editor's note: We first published in 2019 this piece that Deborah Ricci wrote as the Chief Clerk of the Warren County Surrogate's Court.

"Mom said I could have her gardening tools!"

"Well, Mom said she always wanted me to have her garden tools."

While the above may sound a bit far-fetched, situations like this happen all the time in Surrogate's Court.

You have worked hard all your life and accumulated some valuable, or at the very least, sentimental possessions. What happens to your belongings when you die?

The first thing you need to know is that the Power of Attorney you may have signed while you were alive is now WORTHLESS. Nobody has any authority to touch any of your STUFF — not even your spouse and/or children — if your assets are titled in your name individually.

The second, more important thing, to know is that no matter what you may have SAID to your friends and loved ones during your lifetime. It doesn't matter now that you are gone, unless you have a properly executed Will.

You should also know that your Will is not valid until the Surrogate says it was properly executed by you and it is admitted to Probate.

A Will admitted to probate authorizes your Executor to legally sell or transfer your real and personal property.

New York State law details how your Will needs to be executed.

Your Will should be in writing — pref-

The Chronicle Legal Issue

erably typed (as handwriting can sometimes be indecipherable) — pages numbered and STAPLED together in proper order.

You must ask two people — who are not beneficiaries under your Will — to be witnesses to the execution of your Will.

You must declare to the two witnesses that the document you are signing is your Last Will and Testament and that it expresses your wishes. (It doesn't hurt to throw in you are of SOUND MIND!)

You must sign your Will in front of the two witnesses. You must ask the two witnesses to sign your Will's attestation clause — after your Signature.

The two witnesses must also sign a separate document called an Affidavit of Attesting Witness, stating the proper formalities were followed during the Will execution.

All executed documents should be kept together in a safe place. If you are comfortable doing so, a photocopy may be provided to your Executor.

DO NOT UNSTAPLE YOUR WILL!

It is always a good idea to consult a lawyer about preparing a Will.

If you are fortunate enough to have accumulated a LOT of possessions, hiring a lawyer may be worth your while AND your peace of mind.

Nobody wants to think about, let alone SPEAK about, their ultimate demise. But do yourself and your beloved family a favor and talk it out...BEFORE you leave us!

Wash. County: 3 supervisors not running again; no Democrats file petitions; Hogan primaried

By Cathy DeDe
 Chronicle Managing Editor

Town supervisors Dana Haff of Hartford, Matt Hicks of Granville and Jim Griffith of White Creek won't seek re-election this November.

Mr. Haff confirmed, "I am not seeking office in Nov. I think maybe 14 years from 7 terms should be sufficient."

Republicans Barbara S. Beecher and Scott Hahn will vie in a Republican primary for the supervisor nomination. Ms. Beecher, a Town Council member, also has the Conservative line in November.

Also in Hartford, three Republicans — David Swezey, Darwin Casey Arlen and Kevin Eastman — will vie in a primary for two Town Council positions.

Kingsbury Town Supervisor Dana Hogan faces a Republican primary challenge from councilman William Haessly, who also has the Conservative line in November, according to the Board of Elections web listing.

Three Republicans submitted petitions for two seats on the Kingsbury Town Council, but there won't be a primary.

James T. Lindsay and Sean Akins will be on the November ballot. Petitions submitted by Les Macura, were invalidated, said Thomas Rogers, the Republican Commissioner on the County Board of Elections.

Mr. Rogers also confirmed that no Democrats — zero — filed petitions for any office up for election in Washington County this year.

Primary day is Tuesday, June 27. Election Day is Tuesday, Nov. 7.

Will independents emerge?

Washington County has notably few contested races at the county or town level this year.

Mr. Rogers said candidates may still emerge. The window for filing petitions on independent lines, those not affiliated with an established political party, is from May 23 to 30.

The full list of candidates who filed petitions is available on the Board of Elections Website.

Baked by Jordan: Cupcakes by Jordan Cleavland

From front page says.

She left to be head baker at a cupcake shop in downtown Saratoga Springs, Bettie's Cakery, which later closed.

"I went back to Hannaford," Jordan says. "To me it wasn't like, Oh, I'm taking a step back. It was — now I have a chance to really perfect what I do."

Baker's DOZEN

Seventh in a series!

She developed a following. "I had people coming up to me at Hannaford trying to place private orders. It was like, wait, I'm getting enough clientele here. I have word of mouth that I could probably do this. I could do this as a job."

She launched Baked by Jordan in 2015.

just before her husband, Scott Cleavland, deployed to Iraq. Scott, Glens Falls Class of 2008, was in Iraq for nine months, Jordan says. He's still in the Army Reserve.

Jordan's only assistant is her mother and "best friend" Robyn Weinberger, who wears a Baked By Jordan T-shirt "like a uniform," Jordan says proudly.

Jordan said her mom is the Boat Manager at Shoreline in Lake George and her dad Shawn works at Finch Paper.

Jordan, nee Weinberger, is the oldest of five siblings, with four younger brothers, all of whom live in the area.

Jordan now has a daughter herself, with a second daughter due this summer.

"I'm realizing, oh my gosh, I don't have to live at a baseball field," she jokes.

Jordan grew up around baking.

"For every single birthday, my mom made our birthday cake. And they were the coolest cakes," Jordan said. "And she let me play in the kitchen with her. Being the only girl, that was kind of our thing."

"The rainbow sprinkles, the butter cream — it was all from watching my mom do it all those years," Jordan adds.

Her business has grown organically through social media and word of mouth.

Her first "real big" breakthrough was her Valentine's Day promo, "which I still offer every year" — a box of a dozen cupcakes. Initially, she did strawberries too, but not anymore — "it's gotten so big."

"I had friends and family putting it all over online. And I got so many orders. And that's kind of when people really knew, okay, she's doing this." Then Covid disrupted her progress. "My weddings were all canceled," she said. "And it was devastating because I wanted to still be baking." This led to the Kelly's Roots connection. "Kelly [Ehlert], the owner, and I have been close friends for a while," Jordan said. Over breakfast, she said she raised the idea to Kelly of baking at the cafe. This will be her fourth summer baking there. She does it two days a week.

Jordan's cupcakes

Jordan does not book weddings for the following year until 10 a.m. on December 1. "I do a first-text-me type basis. And I'm normally booked on the first day for my entire season," she said.

"Booking too far in advance, it was just too overwhelming. I wanted to be able to solely focus on my brides who are getting married in 2023," she said.

Plus, "it kind of gives everybody who's getting married in 2024 a fair shot at getting me to be their baker."

Jordan said she bakes, on average, 150 cupcakes for a wedding.

"I'm a one person show," she says, first meeting with the brides and grooms to discuss flavors. "I'm also the one that sets up and delivers that day and creates that beautiful display at the venue."

Initially Jordan offered a full menu of cake items, but she now focuses just on cupcakes — with one exception. She often prepares a small traditional cake just for the bride and groom. "Just for them to literally cut into, to get that picture. That picture perfect moment," she laughs.

"It's funny because as the years are going on, I feel like my brides and grooms know Baked by Jordan because of my cupcakes. So instead of getting the cake, they each want a cupcake to just bite into. Because then they can each have their own flavor."

Jordan has a "list" of why people should choose cupcakes instead of full cakes.

Number one: "A cupcake you can hold in your hands, and you can dance on the dance floor at the same time."

"I love how the cupcake display becomes a main focal point in the room," she adds. "Everybody's talking about the cupcakes. It's less waste."

"I could go on and on!" she says. Jordan does confess, "I don't like cake. I've never liked cake."

Why bake then? "It's a creative outlet. It's something that I can pour myself into."

Photo provided

Doing something with my hands. And again, it's that attention to detail — that gives me that high," she said.

Personally she says she prefers a "bowl of cookie dough, or a bowl of ice cream."

But she also points out that she can fill her cupcakes with cookie dough.

Regular flavors include Funfetti Cookie Dough and Strawberry Shortcake, seasonally; Cherry Limeade, Dirt Pudding.

"They're very animated," Jordan says. "I try to get down to those little details."

Her Neapolitan cupcake "is strawberry, vanilla, chocolate, that piece of the cone, the rainbow sprinkles. It's those details."

Jordan's cupcakes are available at Kelly's Roots — fresh on Mondays and Thursdays; during holiday Instagram promos @bakedbyjordan.ny; or weddings she caters.

Local school musicals score big again as nominees for Proctors awards

By Cathy DeDe
Chronicle Managing Editor

Yet again, local schools are big nominees in Proctors Theatre's Capital Region High School Musical Theater Awards.

Best Musical nominees include Queensbury's Shrek The Musical, Glens Falls' The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, and South Glens Falls' Tuck Everlasting.

Individual nominees include Carter & Delaney Sano of Queensbury. I believe they're the first sibling nominees in the awards' seven-year history.

Carter, a senior, is one of six regional Best Actor nominees for the lead role as Shrek. His sister Delaney is nominated for Best Supporting Actress as Gingy.

South Glens Falls senior Eva Reese is nominated as Best Actress for her role as Winnie Foster in Tuck Everlasting.

Much is at stake: The Best Actor and Best Actress winners go on to the national Jimmy Awards on Broadway in New York City, in June.

Winners will be announced at a Tony Awards-style glittery tops-and-tails extravaganza at Proctors, beginning at 7 p.m. on Saturday night, May 13.

The energy is through the roof, both sides of the footlights.

On stage: Show-stopping numbers by all nine Best Musical nominees; short solo performances by best actor and best actress nominees; eye-popping opening and closing numbers featuring actors from all 22 participating schools, which also include locally Fort Ann, Whitehall, Schuylerville and Saratoga Springs.

Note: Hudson Falls, a perennial winner, was not part of this year's program. The school auditorium is under renovation. Their storied troupe performed a student cabaret at the Strand Theater, rather than a full musical.

Winners give short thank-you speeches, typically heartfelt, sometimes teary.

The extravaganza clips along efficiently, overseen by Proctors chief Phillip Morris and a bevy of adult emcee-presenters.

Our local schools have sent several winners on to the Jimmys, and brought the house down numerous years with winning Best Musical performances.

Queensbury's six nominations for Shrek also include Best Ensemble, Best Choreography and Best Set Design. Notably, a student — senior Kendra Jones — was lead choreographer.

South Glens Falls' Tuck was also nominated for Choreography, Set Construction and Technical Execution.

Glens Falls's Spelling Bee is also up for Best Ensemble, Choreography, Set Construction and Technical Execution.

icipating shows select the nominees. The system is not without its faults: Queensbury and Glens Falls both earned their "Ensemble" nominations, but I wish a bunch more actors from both schools had received individual nods.

Spelling Bee doesn't have a single lead but wow, so many in the cast had breakthrough moments — Macklin McGrath, Sophia Plante, Shane LaBounty and Sofia Rice. And that leaves out about a half-dozen other superlative performances.

Likewise in Queensbury, I'd have liked to see Adam Spero, remarkable as Lord Farquaad, and Avery Magee, feisty as Donkey, receive further recognition.

I'm thrilled we'll get to see all three Best Musical Nominees again, Queensbury reprising "Let Your Freak Flag Fly" from

GF Police warn: Thefts from cars

The Glens Falls Police Department said it continues to receive and investigate “a significant number” of reports of items being stolen from unlocked motor vehicles over the last few weeks.

“These incidents have been taking place at night and coincide with a typical pattern seen this time of the year.”

Chief Jarred Smith was quoted, “The subjects who are responsible will attempt to see if a vehicle is locked or not. If the vehicle is locked, they typically move on. It is very rare that we receive any reports of forced entry or windows being broken in any investigation like this.”

“These types of crimes occur very quickly, making them very difficult to catch. Thus, we’re asking everyone within the city to lock your motor vehicles and to remove any valuables from your vehicle anytime it will be left unattended.”

The Department also asks the public to check web cameras and security video equipment, and notify police if anything is found. Info: 518-761-3840.

Calls Luzerne Library Drag Queen Story Hour ‘child abuse’

Understand what a Drag Queen Story Hour is all about that I oppose such programs for our children at the library. A program like this is not a “culturally diverse program.” The “culture” of Drag Queen is perversion by its very nature.

According to Joshua Jacquard responding in the same edition, “One of the books planned for reading was ‘Red, A Crayon’ story” a book about a blue crayon born in a red crayon wrapper.”

I believe this is evidence of an agenda.

If Mr. Scarlet Sagamore wants to pretend he is a woman, I won’t try to stop him. He can perform in a local bar or another venue for adults.

But to invite him to read to children is child abuse. I assume his acting is funny and fun, otherwise he would not be successful, and that is exactly why it is dangerous to our children’s character development. They most likely would walk away thinking such activity was normal and acceptable.

I am not aware that Ms. Keir and the library staff have been threatened with “violence” and if they have, I want nothing to do with that. But it is a good sign when parents stand up to protect their children.

— Gary D. Bombard, Stony Creek

Responds: Don’t make Main Street stoplights flashing yellow at night

do. The Fire Trucks go through there all the time. It is a pretty busy intersection I have seen way too many accidents at this intersection over the years.

If you take away that red light and make a blinking light, people will blast through it like it wasn’t there and there would be more accidents. So show a little patience and deal with the lights.

A few minutes of waiting at the light isn’t gonna make that much difference but it could save a life.

— Linda Thomas, Queensbury

Yankee fan to Mark: Your Orioles failed in '71; don't get hopes up

back to my NY Yankees during that same period, but what I remember most was the year your team LOST the world series to the Pirates. The 1971 Orioles Should have won it all!

How a team with that much talent lost that series is beyond me! If ever there was an American league “machine,” it was that crew. 4 twenty-win pitchers on one team! Boog, the two Robinsons and Don Baylor...It doesn’t get much better than that!

As far as this year’s Orioles squad, I’m not so sure .Mark. I’d say that working their way into second place is a pretty good start, but it’s been 40 years and last year’s team finished in fourth place.

I suggest you transition from your love of the song, “Take me out to the ball-park” to Frank Sinatra’s “New York New York” — ‘cause even though we presently trail your beloved “O’s,” NY fans all know we will always be in the running come October!!

COMING ATTRACTIONS
Notes by Cathy DeDe

GF Symphony plus Broadway singer: 'Sunday in the school with Jen...'

Broadway & the Orchestra — Guest artist Jennifer Sanchez, most recently from Phantom of the Opera, will perform classic show tunes with the Glens Falls Symphony.

That's a goofy headline, channeling Stephen Sondheim in anticipation of a concert that is, yes, meant to be fun, says Charles Peltz, music director and maestro of the Glens Falls Symphony Orchestra. "An Evening of Classic Broadway," the Symphony's final concert of the regular season, is Sunday, May 7, at 4 p.m. at the Glens Falls High School. Tix: $40-$60, $10 student with ID. Box office: Online or call 793-1348.

Special guest, Broadway actress Jennifer Maria Sánchez, will perform selections from Lerner & Loewe's Camelot, Rodgers and Hammerstein's Sound of Music and South Pacific, "Vanilla Ice Cream" from Harnick and Bock's She Loves Me, "You'll Never Walk Alone," "If I Were a Bell" and more.

Ms. Sánchez comes to Glens Falls by way of an acclaimed regional production of Sweet Charity, she in the lead, when a friend of a friend suggested her for the Symphony gig.

"Work begets work," she told The Chronicle in a phone interview. "It's been fun collaborating with Charles Peltz," she said. The future actress grew up in Albuquerque, New Mexico. "I knew from an early age, four years old, I was going to be a singer." Her parents weren't show biz, they made music, she says. She's appeared on Broadway and in cast recordings for recent production of Pretty Woman, Sunday in the Park with George, On Your Feet, Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown, West Side Story. Her big break was playing Rosalita in the 2009 revival of West Side Story, she says. She's also an accomplished singer-songwriter-guitarist, currently writing a show of her own.

Free events, too!

Behind the scenes: On Saturday, May 6, Ms. Sánchez will join Broadway producer/costume designer Stacey Stephens for an informal talk about life backstage as a theater professional. The free program is at 2 p.m. at the Charles R. Wood Theater in Glens Falls.

Pre-show: Ticket holders may come early on Sunday for a pre-concert talk with Maestro Charles Peltz at 3 p.m.

The best advice I was given is sit up straight when you are on a horse, because if the horse bucks you have less chance you would go flying forward and get very hurt. When I was on a horse named Cedar he always would put his head down and that would make my upper body go forward, but he never bucked. But when I was on my first trail ride, this girl was on Cedar and people next door were banging, and Cedar got scared, then bucked and she was not sitting up and straight, so she went flying forward. Thankfully she did not get hurt.

My instructor gave me that advice.

Fly fishing with Dad

The best advice I have ever received came from my dad. He gives me advice on how to cast my fly rod and how to catch fish. He told me to think like a fish. He also told me to keep my feet under me so that I don't go for a swim....again!

What's the best advice you received? Who gave it?

Hard stuff first

My mom gave me the best advice. She told me do the hard stuff first, then the easy stuff.

Puppies are hard work

My friend Lizzie told me that puppies are hard work. I wanted a puppy, and that helped me, to know that puppies are hard work. And then one day I got a ...puppy!

It is a German Shepherd and Lab! And she was right. It is hard. He is definitely hard work. That's for sure.

It's them not you

The best advice anyone gave me was, "If someone body shames you or teases you about your appearance, they are probably insecure about themselves."

My mom gave me that advice because people used to say mean things about my body. They used to call me names. Whenever my mom told me that advice, I would feel better about myself. My Nana used to tell my mom the same advice when my mom was a kid. I hope you also will use this advice for someone, or use it for yourself.

Nothing to hide? — The cast of Calendar Girls

'Calendar Girls' this week in GF

Glens Falls Community Theatre presents the play Calendar Girls, Thursday to Sunday, May 4 to 7, at the Charles R. Wood Theater in Glens Falls.

The show is based on the true story of an English womens club whose members posed nude for a calendar to raise money for the Leukemia Research Fund, after one of their husbands died from cancer — "much to the horror" of their club chairwoman.

The success of the calendar went beyond anyone's expectation, and captured the attention of national and international press.

The play is directed by Camille West Wodicka, making her directorial debut after performing in the play for Home Made Theater.

"The art of the play's nudity lies in what is withheld," says the Community Theatre, which it describes as "fabulous concealment" in the "hilarious finale."

Curtain times: Thursday to Saturday at 7:30 p.m., and Sunday at 2 p.m.

Tix: $30, online at woodtheater.org.

NOTICE OF SUBMISSION OF ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT AND CONSTRUCTION PLAN FOR CHAMPLAIN HUDSON POWER EXPRESS

Please take notice that, on or about April 21, 2023, CHPE LLC and CHPE Properties, Inc. (collectively referred to as "CHPE") intend to submit Environmental Management & Construction Plans ("EM&CPs") for Segments 4 and 5 of the proposed Champlain Hudson Power Express ("CHPE") Project. This EM&CP includes installation of approximately 26.5 miles of buried overland cable running from the Town of Fort Edward (Washington County) through the Town of Milton (Saratoga County), primarily along railroad rights-of-way.

On April 18, 2013, the NYS Public Service Commission (Commission) issued to CHPE a certificate of environmental compatibility and public need (Certificate), pursuant to Article VII of the Public Service Law (PSL), to construct and operate the CHPE Project. The Certificate requires that, prior to construction of any portion of the Project, CHPE submit an EM&CP for review and comment.

Details of the planned work locations, including an overview map of the proposed route, is available on the Project website at: https://chpexpress.com/overview-of-public-documents/environmental-management-construction-plan/. In general, construction activities for these Segments are anticipated to commence in the summer of 2023. Where possible, construction will generally occur during daylight hours, though some limited activities would extend to later hours as needed.

The EM&CP provides detailed information regarding how these Segments of the Project will be constructed, the specific locations of the proposed permanent right-of-way, Construction Zones, and temporary work areas, as well as descriptions of work to be performed, plan and profile drawings depicting the Project, and protocols to be used during construction to protect the community and the environment, and to comply with the CHPE Certificate. The EM&CP must be reviewed and approved by the PSC before construction on these Segments can begin.

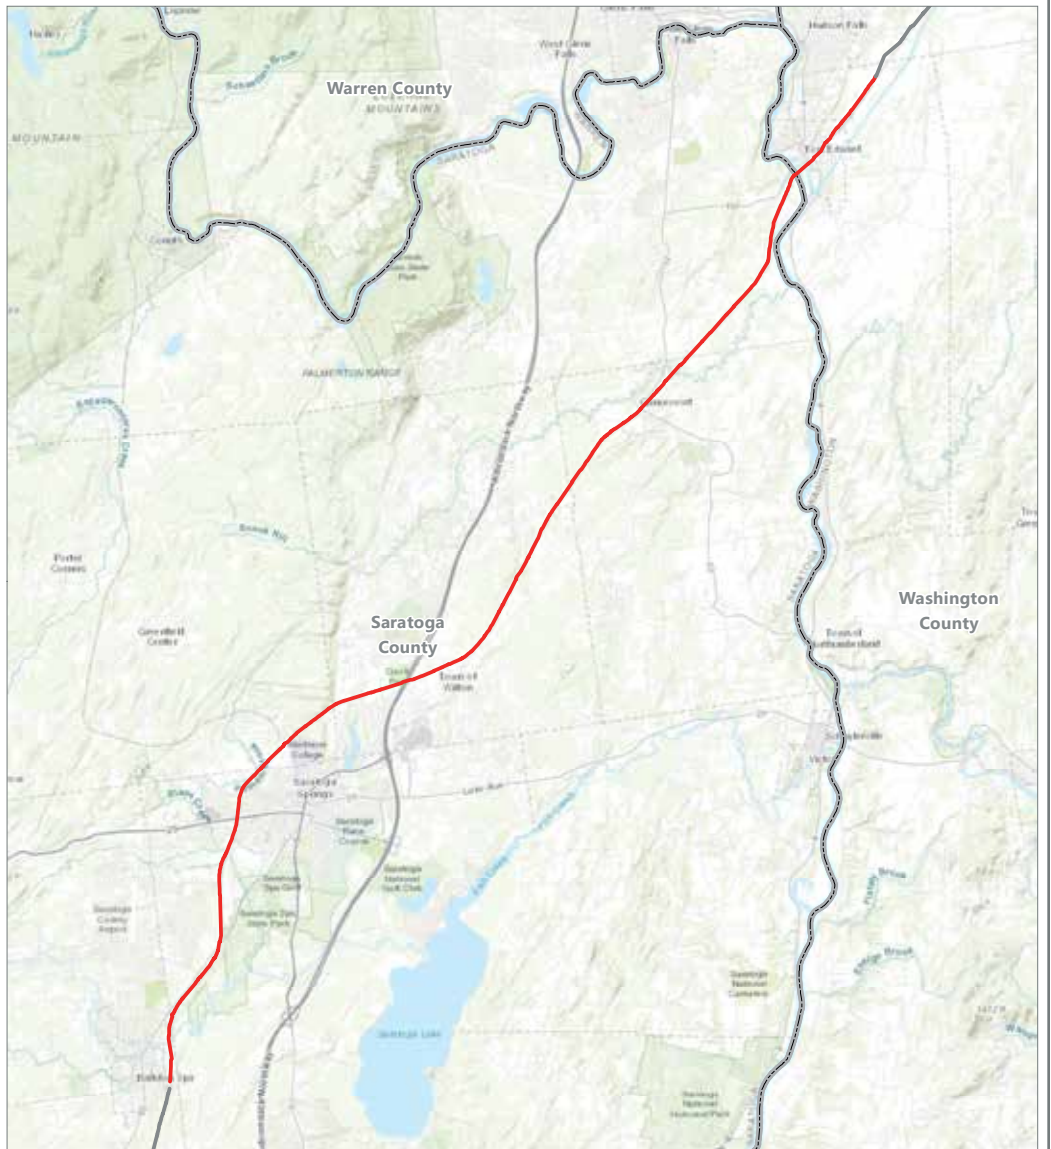

The full Commission docket for the Project can be accessed via the Commission's website at: http://documents.dps.ny.gov/public/MatterManagement/CaseMaster.aspx?Matter-CaseNo=10-T-0139 and electronic copies of EM&CP documents also will be available on the Project website at https://chpexpress.com/overview-of-public-documents/environmental-management-construction-plan/. Paper copies of the EM&CP submissions will be available for viewing at the following local document repositories: Fort Edward Public Library, 23 East St., Fort Edward, NY 12828; Saratoga Springs Public Library, 49 Henry St., Saratoga Springs, NY 12866; Ballston Spa Public Library, 21 Milton Ave., Ballston Spa, NY 12020.

Comments related to these proposed EM&CPs should be submitted to the Commission Secretary by email at secretary@dps.ny.gov or by mail to Michelle Phillips, Secretary, NYS Public Service Commission, 3 Empire State Plaza, Albany, NY, 12223, within 30 days of the EM&CP segment's filing with the Commission. All comments should reference Case Number 10-T-0139.

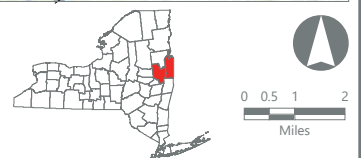

CHPE has established a toll-free number for questions regarding the Project: 1-800-991-CHPE (2473). Questions or requests for further information can be directed to: publicoutreach@chpexpress.com or by mail to Molly Hollister, WSP USA, One Pennsylvania Plaza, New York, New York 10119.
