Lake George electric boat push is on...

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

Electric boating is getting a big push this summer on Lake George.

In June, "the first marine fast charging station east of Michigan" — made by a firm called Aqua superPower — was installed at the Queen Boat Company at Dunham's Bay.

"What we're trying to do is instigate the movement away from internal combustion engines," Aqua SuperPower Vice-President Scott Canning

Q&A: 2nd term for Joe Biden?

By Mark Frost
Chronicle Editor

"Should President Biden be reelected?" we asked in our weekly Q&A with Chronicle digital subscribers. Some replies:

Absolutely NOT! Biden doesn't know JACK about anything! Under his presidency we have become the weakest country in the WORLD. We need a leader who stands up to China. A leader who know business, and treats the economy like a business. Biden has been infected by inflation...it seeped into his empty head.

— Loretta Mulson, Lake Luzerne

Biden has done enough. As has Trump. Time for Joe to drive his corvette off into the sunset.

— Bob Chiarello, Wilton

Of course he should be reelected. He has done the very

Lake George season pass boaters lost valued option in NY's new rules

Mark,
In your commentary about the new Lake George day-use site reservation system [June 22 Chronicle], you didn't mention what I consider to be a significant change (and loss) with the Annual
