Storm stories

By Cathy DeDe

Chronicle Managing Editor

At around quarter-to-six on Tuesday evening, July 16, Nate Meehan was on Lake George's Duran Island in the islands called the Mother Bunch taking video of an impressive storm brewing.

"We were laughing, like, oh, here comes in a big gust. It was kind of cute and funny, and then all of a sudden it was, well, not funny anymore."

New Hampshire natives Nate and Brian Meehan — now of

Tornado on Route 28

The National Weather Service reported, "An EF-0 tornado occurred along Route 28 just south of The Glen" near Chestertown, Tuesday, July 16, from 5:22 to 5:29 p.m.

The NWS estimated peak winds of 85 mph. The tornado was 150 yards at its maxi-

GF Hospital: 'Ample' free parking for all our employees

Dear Mark,

I'd like to give you an update in response to the article in the 7/18/24 edition of The Chronicle titled, "GF again giving parking tickets; hospital friction."

We understand the frustration expressed by those who wrote to the City and spoke to The Chronicle by telephone. They have been able to park on Hudson Ave. for some time now without having the 2-

Kamala's rise; Joe's demise

By Mark Frost

Chronicle Editor

Republicans went into their victory dance far too soon, and Democrats, the party that claims to be saving democracy, made sure its voters got no choice in candidates at all.

Analysis/opinion

Standard bizarre fare in today's world of U.S. politics.

Trump did call

Dear Mr Frost:

Your article in the latest Chronicle, "Political heat won't turn down," has a falsehood I need to make aware to you. Former President Donald Trump did indeed make a phone call to the widow of the firefighter hero that you claimed he did not. I hope you admit your mistake and report it. You probably won't. Typical liberal media.

— Robert Meyers

Hi Mark,

Former President Trump called Helen Comperatore on Tuesday. He also called the
